Part of the map with some teleporter tracking icons, some extractors, and Gordos Map of the World, referred to in the game as the Far, Far Range map, is a feature introduced in update 1.0.1 as part of the navigation update. First, the map is empty and unlimited except for the ranch, but can be filled out by activating the map data nodes in the respective zones. Content to access the map, the default button to bring up the M card on the PC edition, and the D-pad directly on the Xbox edition. When positioned in an area outside a known area, the map receives a static filter. You can zoom in or out with buttons on the right side, or with a scroll wheel on the mouse on the PC Edition. Card Map In the game card is default blank, and specific areas must be unlocked by activating card nodes. The map tracking card can also track various things for the player that include: Gordo icons Gordo icons are presented on the map when Gordo Slime has been filed at least once. This way you can track both Wild Gordos and Snared Gordos. Slime Keys are not tracked on the map. Instead, the game tracks how much was collected from wild Gordo Slimes in a certain area in the upper left corner, but only after the map Data node has been activated. Extractors are shown on the map when the extractor is placed. The extractor icon corresponds to the type of extractor used and is always presented as a Beginner extractor on the map regardless of the rank used. Teleports made by the player are shown on the map when placing teleporters, regardless of whether they are connected or not. The icon used corresponds to the color of the teleport. Like Slime Keys, treasure pods are not tracked directly on the map; instead the game tracks how many of them were open in a certain zone in the top left corner, but only How the data maps the area has been activated. One way Static Teleports are tracked on a map is like a teleporter with a home icon. The destination - an inactive teleport on the ranch at Plort Market - is not tracked. Changelog 1.3.2 - A bug has been fixed where the number of mucus keys on the map does not include the keys you've already found. 1.2.1 - Made so the map tutorial will be completed immediately after the card is opened to complete the card tutorial. 1.2.0 - Improved scrolling on the map when using a controller. 1.1.0 - Proud Slimes on the range that have been filed at least once will appear on the map. 1.0.1 - Added map interface that gives you a general idea of where you are on the Far, Far Range. The map areas are unlocked after the data mapping nodes are activated in each zone. The map also tracks any teleports or extractors that you have placed, and will give you the total number of keys to the mucus and treasure pods collected in each zone. Data mapping nodes are interactive objects in the Far, Far Range that can completely unlock the area on the world map. In addition to unlocking the details of the terrain on the map itself, it also opens up the ability to view information on how many treasure pods that have been discovered in the area and how many Slime Keys have been collected, in the upper left side. With the exception of Rancho and its expansion, Wild, Ogden Retreat, Mochi Manor, Nimble Valley, Victor's Workshop, and Slimeulation, each zone has one: Map Node Locations Gallery [t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t,t,caption:A Map Node,linkHref:VwikiVFile:MapNodeActive.png,title:MapNodeActive.png,dbKey:MapNodeActive.png},{thumbUrl:https://vignette.wikia.nocookie.net/slimerancher/vimages/0/0e/MapNodeInactive.png/revision/latest/top-crop/width/480/height/480?cb=20170813214933,thumbHtml:t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t/t,t,caption:A Map Node that has activated a portion of The Map,linkHref:VwikiVFile:MapNodeInactive.png,title:MapNodeInactive.png,dbKey:MapNodeInactive.png}\] data-expanded=0>](#) As part of the Unified Community Platform project, your wiki has been migrated to the new platform.
